

Colchester United Community Sports Trust

Football College In partnership with

Thurstable Sports College and Sixth Form Centre

Are you a talented, committed footballer?
Improve & develop your football and your education

Colchester United Community Sports Trust is on the look-out for current Year 11 students that are top-quality footballers as well as being academically-capable students for their 'Football College'. The CUCST 6th form football college in partnership with Thurstable Sports College and Sixth Form Centre has run very successfully since September 2009 and is now established as one of the top post-16 football/education programmes in Essex.

Successful players from the Open Days would benefit from:

- Links with Colchester United FC and CUCST
- A daily structured football programme with UEFA 'B' Licensed (FA Level 3) coaches
- A full range of full time educational courses
- A competitive fixture schedule in local and national college league and cup competitions
- Football Association coaching qualifications (FA Levels 1 and 2)
- Sports leadership / officiating / injury treatment courses
- Assistance and advice on careers after the Programme (i.e. higher education, employment, football etc)

EXPRESSION OF INTEREST (please return by Friday 6th January 2012 at the very latest)

I'm interested and would like to receive more information on 'CUCST & THURSTABLE Football College'. Please fill in and return to: Wayne Lowry, CUCST Football College, Shrub End Community and Sports Centre, Boadicea Way, Colchester, CO2 9BG.
