Open Trial Day - February 22nd 2012: 9am - 1pm

Are you a talented, committed footballer?
Improve & develop your football and your education

Colchester United Community Sports Trust is on the look-out for current Year 11 students that are top-quality footballers as well as being academically-capable students for their 'Football College'. CUCST has run the football college for the past 2 years. The football college is based at Thurstable School, and is known as the 'CUCST and Thurstable Football College'(C&TFC). This has run very successfully since September 2009 and is now established as one of the top post-16 football/education programmes in Essex.

Successes so far:

- Promotion from BCS Participation League 2009-10
- Winners of BCS Performance East Division 2010-11
- Promotion to the British College Sport (BCS), National College Football League (Elite League) for season 2011-12
- NEESA Cup Winners 2010 and 2011
- 5 Players have represented Essex FA/Schools U18's Squad

Successful players from the Open Day would benefit from:

- Links with Colchester United FC and CUCST
- A daily structured football programme with UEFA 'B' Licensed (FA Level 3) coaches
- A full range of full time educational courses ranging from BTEC courses, 'A' levels and GCSE re-sits
- A competitive fixture schedule in local and national college league and cup competitions
- Opportunity to take Football Association coaching qualifications (FA Levels 1 and 2)
- Sports leadership / officiating / injury treatment courses
- Assistance and advice on careers after the Programme (i.e. higher education, employment, football etc)
